TIMOMATIC DEBUTS EXCLUSIVE LIVE PERFORMANCE AT THE PALMS AT CROWN

Melbourne, Australia, 29 October 2012. Actor, singer, dancer, writer, choreographer and all round entertainer Timomatic will showcase his extensive talents when he debuts his exclusive all ages show: 'Timomatic - Live At The Palms' at Crown this November.

Fresh from supporting international stars such as Janet Jackson, Flo Rida, Nicki Minaj and Salt 'n Pepa, Timomatic is ready to stun Melbourne with his energetic, dynamic performance.

After being signed to Sony Music Australia in 2011, Timomatic released his debut single 'Set It Off', which shot to No. 1 on the Australian Artist Official ARIA Charts and achieved triple platinum sales.

Timomatic will be performing all his hit singles and album favourites including 'If Looks Could Kill', 'Can You Feel It' and 'Incredible'; featuring Australia's finest commercial dancers during his show at The Palms.

Appearing as a grand finalist on Channel Seven's 2011 series of Australia's Got Talent - viewed by 2.8 million people - Timomatic has cemented himself as one of Australia's must-see live acts.

The Palms at Crown is a multi-layered auditorium with seating for 800 people. Sightlines and sound are state of the art, with all patrons enjoying uninterrupted views as Timomatic impresses with his performance. This show is sure to sell out, book now through Ticketek.
