

Enjoying a cocktail in the lobby of a grand hotel is an age-old tradition. For the last 150 years (or so) the cocktail, a cup of tea, cuisine and culture have all been influenced by establishments just like this, and by its guests.

Join us as we celebrate Time and Place through the cocktail in our hotel lobby bar.

“People disappeared, reappeared, made plans to go somewhere, and then lost each other, searched for each other, found each other a few feet away.”

F. SCOTT FITZGERALD, THE GREAT GATSBY

KAFA BY LAVAZZA

Kafa is one of the finest coffees in the world, because it derives from the first coffee plants from which all others originated. It comes from the Ethiopian forest, where coffee grows spontaneously with minimal intervention from the region's inhabitants.

They merely hand down, from generation to generation, the secret of how to preserve these valuable plants and harvest their precious fruits. The harvest is carried out by hand after careful selection and the drying is done naturally in the sun.
