COSENTINO THE GRAND ILLUSIONIST PRESENTS 'DISTORTIONS' AT THE PALMS AT CROWN

Melbourne, Australia, 25 September 2012. Master illusionist and Australia's Got Talent 2011 runner-up, Cosentino has announced two extra shows at The Palms at Crown during his Melbourne season from 17 until 21 October. The additional shows were scheduled by demand confirming he is the country's most popular magician.

Cosentino launched his career at the age of 14 and has enjoyed steady success and industry embrace since his debut. After his appearance on the popular television show, Australia's Got Talent his career has catapulted to new heights. His elaborate performances showcased some of his complicated and mesmerising magic which intrigued viewers. His alluring talents are even better live on stage and leave the audience teetering on the edge of their seats until curtain call.

Distortions is a world-class production that will distort the audience's perception of reality as they experience this unique magical journey. The combination of incredible dexterity and intensity is sure to challenge rationale, as Cosentino performs staggering acts of mind and body manipulations.

As well as being a finalist on Australia's Got Talent, Cosentino is a Guinness World Record holder, Helpmann Award nominee and the 2012 winner of the prestigious international Merlin Award for the Most Original Magician - a first time award for an Australian illusionist/magician.

The Palms at Crown is a multi-layered auditorium with seating for 800 people. Sightlines and sound are state of the art, with all patrons enjoying uninterrupted views as Cosentino wows them with his performance. No further shows will be added to Cosentino's Melbourne season. Extra shows are sure to sell out, book now through Ticketek.
